Resolutions Adopted Assuring Him of Support.

REPUBLICANISM LAUDED

Speakers Say Only Consistent Thing to Do is to Vote the Ticket.

At a well attended meeting of Afro-Amerians of the Monongahela Valley, held last evening in the Bank of Charleroi hall, John K. Tener as the head of the ticket and all of the other candidates of the Republican party, were tendered a hearty and unanimous endorsement. The name Tener mentioned on several occasions by the speakers created wild applause, and could the candidate have been present he would have been touched by the whole-souled loyalty and friendship displayed for him and his cause.

The meeting was opened by Addison Ebbits of Charleroi, and Howard Thomas was chosen chairman and Harry Rideout secretary. The first speaker was Capt. William Catlin of Monongahela, who made a stirring address, espousing the Republican ticket and J. K. Tener as the proper man for standard bearer. He was especially bitter against what he termed the upstart Keystone party.

Capt. Catlin was followed by J. H. Rhodes of Charleroi who made interesting comparisons showing the members of his race that it was the Republican party and no other that had brought the negro out of slavery. He also spoke of the hopelessness of the colored man of bettering his condition by voting other than the Republican ticket

Wilford Holmes, an attorney from Pittsburg, made one of the principal addresses. He reviewed the records of the various parties and said—all had enough faults, but the Republican party had within it the last wrongs of any of them, and was the only party which the negro could consistently support, because of what it had done for the race, and said it was only through its administration that the negro could better his conditions in the State. The Democratic party and the Keystone party were really opponents of the cause of freedom, he said, and to vote either was to partly vote away his rights. "If the Republican party has faults, raise the devil in the party," he shouted, "and don't think that by jumping the traces to another upstart ticket, you can better yourselves. By and by you will want something from the Republican party, which is bound to win, and you won't stand the least show at all of getting it."

Jesse K. Johnston, who was present, was called upon for an address and spoke of the strict integrity of the candidates and of the necessity to vote the straight ticket.

A committee was appointed early in the meeting on resolutions, consisting of Hiram Smith, Lockwood Hughes, Rev. Daniel Ferguson, J.

LOCK 4 LEADS IN BUSINESS

Coal Shipments Surpass Those Through Lower Pool During October.

A report of Lock No. 2 for the month of October shows that the shipments of coal were not up to those of Lock No. 4. The coal locked through No. 2 during the month totaled 13,255,000 bushels, just 1,283,000 bushels less than through Lock No. 4 which had a shipment of 14,528,000 bushels of coal. The low water hampers navigation in the lower pools the same as it does in the upper pools.

TEACHER RESIGNS

Illness Causes Miss Anna Davis to Quit Position.

DIRECTORS IN SESSION

The resignation of Miss Anna N. Davis as teacher in the Seventh grade of the Fifth street school building, was accepted by the school board at their regular meeting last night. Miss Davis presented her resignation because of illness, being unable to continue the school work. No one was elected to the place, and a substitute teacher will be employed temporarily.

The report of Superintendent J. G. Pentz for the past month was not read, as all members were not present. It was decided to not have school the day after Thanksgiving. Bills were ordered paid, and the report of Tax Collector J. W. Mathias for the years 1909 and 1910 was accepted. Mr. Mathias had turned over to the treasurer for 1910 school taxes $21,229 17, and for building $10,617.52. For 1909 taxes the sum of $219.60 for school and $139 62 for building was turned over to the treasurer.

BUSINESS MEN STAND BY HOME CANDIDATE

Charleroi People Who Have Associated With J. K. Tener Believe Him Thoroughly Honest and Upright.

Bearing the signatures of 125 local business and professional men, firms and pastors of churches, the following testimonial from Congressman John K. Tener's home town was published today in the Pittsburg Gazette Times. The petition was circulated by some of Mr. Tener's friends among the business people of Charleroi inview of certain reports that Mr. Tener did not stand well in his home town. The practically unanimous endorsement by the business people of the town must effectually refutes this charge. The testimonial subscribed to is as follows:

"The undersigned business and professional men of Charleroi take this method of expressing our regard for John K. Tener, the Republican party nominee for Governor of Pennsylvana.

"We are his neighors and friends. We have been engaged in our various vocation in the same community with him for years. All of us have been more or less personally associated with him both in private and commercial affairs and in enterprises and movements of a public nature. We know him intimately. We know him to be rigidly honest in all his relations—a man of the best motives. For 19 years, ever since the foundation of this town, he has lived among us and has been highly honored by us for his unselfish citizenship, his manly attitude toward his neighbor, his substantial success in whatever project or problem he undertakes, and his devotion to the public interest in this section.

"Such being the estimate of the character and qualities of Mr. Tener, we beg in this manner, voluntarily, and as a well deserved tribute to Mr. Tener, to commend him to the people of Pennsylvania for their suffrage on election day.

"With complete and unshaken confidence in him, we urge him as a thoroughly capable successor to that splendid type of Pennsylvania Republicanism, Gov. Edwin S. Stuart, whose approved policies he is pledged to continue."

PROMINENT COUPLE WED AT CUMBERLAND

Prosperous Young Merchant and Bride Taking Wedding Trip.

Proceeding quietly to Cumberland, Md., and to the home of a minister there Miss Florence Kendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kendrick of Washington avenue, and George Thomas Barger, manager and owner of the Keystone Tea store on Fallowfield avenue, were married yesterday. The couple continued their trip to Baltimore, Md., and other places to be gone a week or so. Upon their return they will live at the Walford Hotel for a time, before going to housekeeping. Both the bride and groom are widely acquainted in Charleroi and vicinity. The bride is an accomplished pianist and for two years or more has been the pianist at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. The groom has been in business in Charleroi for several years and is known as a hustling and prosperous young business man. The wedding came as somewhat of a surprise to the numerous friends of the couple who, nevertheless, tender their best wishes.

Charles Bromwich, Jr., has gone to Chicago, Ill., to learn constructional engineering.

MISSIONARIES THE THEME OF TALKS

Missionary Society Meets at Washington Avenue Church.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the church. Mrs. Ira Nickeson had charge of the devotional exercises The topic for the afternoon's discussion was "Our Missionaries," led by Mrs. Edwin McKay. The discussion was lively, spicy and strictly to the point, several ladies being called upon to take part. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Campbell favored the society with a duet. Refreshments were served, by the hostesses, Mrs. Michener, Mrs. James Eneix, Mrs. Mary Patterson and Mrs. Brounce.

STREETS BEING WELL REPAIRED

Street Commissioner Jacob Hormell is getting well under way the work of improvement of the paved streets over the town, where parts had been sunken by cave-ins over sewers. On Ninth street and Crest avenue, in making more general repairs, it was necessary to change the curb.

MARK THIS, MR. VOTER!

From the Pittsburg Gazette Times.

WHAT kind of a Republican are you? A TAFT man? Well, President TAFT is in favor of the election of Republican candidates for Governor, for the Legislature and for Congress. Are you a ROOSEVELT man? Well, Col. ROOSEVELT has issued appeal after appeal to Republicans east and west urging the importance of standing faithfully by the nominees of their party's conventions and primaries. Are you an insurgent Republican? Well, Senator CUMMINS of Iowa says: "I would rather suffer the inequalities of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill for a thousand years than suffer the disaster of the application of the Democratic theory of the tariff for a single month." Are you a KNOX man? Well, Secretary KNOX'S Columbus speech of Wednesday night was a call upon Republicans of every shade of opinion to stick to their party's flag. Are you a STUART man? Well, Gov. STUART has his coat off and is fighting for the whole Republican ticket. In short, the big men of the Republican party in various States, regardless of differences existing earlier in the year, and without respect to their personal preferences, are battling for Republican candidates and opposing fake "independent" movements. Certainly Pennsylvania Republicans in the ranks will make no mistake if they, too, prove their loyalty by voting for JOHN K. TENER and his ticket colleagues, State and district.

YOUNG WOMAN VICTIM OF RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Blanche Phillips Killed by Train at North Charleroi.

DEATH OCCURRED LATER

Was Able to Rise From Ground After Being Struck But Could not Walk

In some unknown manner, while returning from a trip to Charleroi last night at about 11 o'clock, Miss Blanche Phillips, 19 years old, was killed by a southbound train at the railroad crossing at North Charleroi. Life was not crushed out immediately, but the girl lived for some time after the accident, her body being found by the railroad tracks by a crew of a northbound train.

Miss Phillips had been living with the family of A. F. McGowan during the past several months. She visited friends in Charleroi last night and with her sister, Grace Phillips, and a friend, Miss Elsie Claybaugh, started home about 10:00 o'clock. She left the other two girls at the bridge, and started to the McGowan house. In what manner she was struck at the crossing is a mystery.

Mr. McGowan returned home on the 11 o'clock car from Charleroi, and as he passed the crossing noticed the girl standing weakly against a post near the station, but did not take much notice of her and passed on to his home. Later he was told that Miss Phillips had been killed. When picked up the girl was not dead and tried to speak but it was too late. Dr. J. K. Smith was called in attendance.

It is supposed that Miss Phillips had been hit by the train before Mr. McGowan had come home, but had thought she was not so badly hurt and was able to arise to her feet, expecting to go on in a moment. Internal injuries are supposed to have caused her death.

Miss Phillips was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips of near New Salem, Fayette county. Two sisters lived here, the one, Grace, who was with her last night, and Mrs. Nora Foulks live in Charleroi, and at home there are four sisters and two brothers. She was a relative of Burgess George W. Risbeck. She was a member of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian congregation and a faithful attendant at the services of that church. The father and one brother came this morning to claim the body and to arrange for the funeral, which will probably be held on Sunday. Coroner Heffran will investigate the death.

APPEAL ALLOWED BRIDGE OWNERS

Claim $50,000 is Not Enough for Structure at Belle Vernon.

The Belle Vernon Bridge company, composed largely of Pittsburg capital, has been allowed an appeal to the price awarded by the viewers for the purchase of the river bridge at Belle Vernon. The appeal was asked some time ago, the company claiming that $50,000, the amount set through condemnation proceedings, was not enough. The bridge was taken over by Washington and Fayette counties and made free.

LAUGH AT ASSERTION

Colored Men Deny Report That Tener is No Friend.

PEOPLE KNOW TRUTH

A report that had gained some circulation in Monongahela this morning that J. K. Tener, candidate for Governor, had said that one of the draw backs of his campaign was having to shake hands with the colored men over the State, was this morning nailed, as has been many similar things within the past few days. The report has been emphatically denied. Charleroi colored people who know Mr. Tener and who recognize him as their friend laugh at the assertion made purely with an attempt to injure.

POURS POWDER IN HOT CAN

John Miller, a Russian miner because he failed to take the proper precautions while pouring some powder from one can to another, is suffering from a badly burned face. The can into which he was pouring the powder was too hot and caused an explosion. Miller boards at 1125 Lincoln avenue, and flames burst forth so that the fire department was called out. The fire was quickly extinguished.

By Way of Contrast

Those good people who are opposing Congressman John K. Tener and the balance of the Republican ticket because of the alleged domination of the party by Senator Penrose, should carefully investigate the character and standing of the leaders and promoters of the Keystone party, the organization that poses at the party of reform, and which if successful at the polls will control the State administration. While the party has many sincere adherents and followers who take no other interest in politics except to cast their ballots on election day, it should be known that three of the most prominent backers of the Keystone movement are E. A. Van Valkenberg, editor of the Philadelphia North American, former Senator William Flinn of Pittsburg, and former Congressman E. F. Acheson of Washington. Each is a discredited and ousted boss in his own locality—that is Flinn and Acheson are, while Van Valkenberg in his checkered and disreputable career, has thus far been frustrated in his attempts at Statewide political control.

What has the Keystone party got to offer from the hands of Van Valkenburg, Flinn and Acheson? Taking the record and career of each, is there any reason to hope for a better condition of affairs with these men in control of the State administration, and virtual dictators of public policies and expenditures? In the interests of morality and civic righteousness, is there any reason to expect a better condition of affairs under the domination of Van Valkenberg, Flinn and Acheson than under Senator Penrose, if the present State administration may be said to be under his control? Contrast Governor Stuart's administration with "Bill" Flinn's control of municipal affairs in Pittsburg; with Acheson's control of political and fiscal affairs in Washington county, when he traded on liquor licenses as political assets, intrenched and extended the liquor traffic, and plunged the county into debt by his patchwork "good roads" folly, his extravagance of administration, and his discriminations in tax assessments which he used as a club through the county commissioners' office on corporations for political support; with Van Valkenberg's shady career, who, as a Quay worker, switched to Wanamaker, and who in his efforts to elect the latter United States Senator was arrested, charged with bribery and settled the case that haled him to court. These are the men who would back Berry, and who will dominate his administration and control State patronage if he is elected.

This is what the Keystone party has to offer the people of Pennsylvania in exchange for the present well ordered administration. The Republican party has within its organization the power to regulate and control affairs at the polls, and its past record of progress and achievement is more than sufficient argument why its followers should continue their support.

Acheson Said

In his Washington Reporter of November 6, 1910, when the Democratic-Citizens fusion threatened Republican supremacy in Washington county, E. F. Acheson said:

"The enemies of the Republican party have made abuse and slander their principal campaign weapons and their documents of misrepresentation have been their leading assets. The people of the county, however, are today calmly considering the situation after the campaign has closed. They are considering the record of the Republican party for thirty years; they are convinced that the court house is not a den of thieves as it has been styled. They know that the charges against certain county officials are groundless; that they have been made anonymously and otherwise for political effect. And they know that the ticket bearing the name 'Republican' is a clean ticket—a ticket which guarantees to the people a competent, an honest and an economical administration of their affairs. And this is what the people want. And they will get it, for the whole Republican ticket will be elected by a splendid majority."

Now Acheson has made an alliance with the Democrats and Keystone party to turn over to them the State and national control. In 1905 only the county offices were at stake. Now the national policy of protection is threatened. Mr. Acheson's warning is more applicable today than when he made it five years ago when his control over county offices was threatened.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

"Salome" as a name for a naughty dance will soon pass into history. It's getting too old.

Some people say they are not going to pay for milk at the rate of 10 cents per quart. It looks as though they wouldn't indulge in that luxury.

They have electric toasters, electric stoves, electric washers electric irons, but people are not yet far enough advanced to have electric women to do their electric ironing.

Walter Wellman was not troubled with having to make another trip to prove his story like Doc Cook.

Mr. Carnegie wants Col. Roosevelt appointed chairman of the committee to promote permanent peace. Heavens! What does he expect of a man who was the originator of the phrase "beaten to a frazzle."

John J. Murphy of Philadelphia complains because J. K. Tener is six feet four and weighs 230 pounds. He is probably sore because fate saw fit to relinquish its work on him before it had made more than a half sized man of him.

The Observer hasn't given the Mail any free advertising for at least two days. We feel much hurt about such neglect.

B. Frank Smith of Fayette county is frankly of the opinion that he is not insane, and was not insane two weeks before he killed the two fellows for which act he is now in jail. The form of insanity which occurs only at intervals and is never recognized except at court trials is a particularly dangerous kind.

Doc Cook has the habit of dropping into the gilded lights now and then but it comes from his dramatic nature, and he is not responsible.

T. Davis, J. G. Young, of Charleroi, S. T. Thornton, R. Kemper, Monongahela, Julius Smith, Monessen, and G. L. Gray, Donora. The following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted.

"Resolved, That we denounce the methods of G. Grant Williams of 726 South Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and others in sending inflammatory circulars and letters to colored secret societies and charitable organizations, as unwise and tending to promote race controversies

"We protest against bringing our beloved lodges and societies into politics for any party.

"We also protest against any attempts to poison the minds of voters against the grand old Republican party for the reason that this party, from the days of the Civil War, has been recognized as our friend and protector.

"We deny the allegations contained in the circulars of G. Grant Williams to the effect that John K. Tener, our fellow citizen and neighbor, is against the colored race. Mr. Tener has lived among us for twenty years, and we personally know him to be at all times honest, honorable and charitable toward his fellow men without regard to race or color.

"We call upon Afro-Americans throughout the entire State to join with us in supporting Mr. Tener and the entire Republican State ticket."

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

In 1906 A. H. Anderson was nominated by the Republicans of Washington County for State Senator. Greene County also presented a candidate in the person of Hon. Daniel S. Walton. Under the conferee system then in vogue, each candidate was entitled to an equal number of conferees. The rules of the State Committee provided that in case of a disagreement, the State Chairman should appoint an umpire, whose vote should decide.

Col. W. R. Andrews, then State Chairman, appointed W. S. Parker, who decided in favor of Mr. Walton. How well Mr. Anderson supported the ticket after being turned down is best told by the following letter from A. M. Templeton, then Chairman for Washington County:—

Col. W. R. Andrews.
1417 Locust Street.
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir;—

You will remember that Mr. Anderson was a candidate for State Senate from the Washington-Greene district, and that I had a talk with you one day late last summer, at Atlantic City, regarding same. You saw fit to arrange matters so that Mr. Anderson would not receive the nomination, and the result was fully as bad as I told you it would be. Mr. Anderson developed great strength at the primary, and his friends were exceedingly indignant over his defeat and the manner of it. Had he stopped right there, as many would under the circumstances, it would have been a very serious matter for the whole Republican ticket in this county. Mr. Anderson, however, was not that kind of a Republican. He placed himself at the disposition of the County Committee and did everything in his power to undo the harm that had been done, and worked faithfully throughout the campaign. The indignation of his friends, however, was so great that, notwithstanding all he could do, our majorjty was several hundred less than it would have been had he been on the ticket, but he saved us many hundreds that we would have lost had it not been for his faithful work.

Yours very truly,
A. M. TEMPLETON,
Chairman.

VICTORY CERTAIN ON TUESDAY NEXT

Pennsylvania Republicans Prepare For Rousing Majority.

WALTON'S CALL TO ACTION

State Chairman Urges All to Go to the Polls to Insure a Magnificent Triumph.

In the closing days of the campaign there is the greatest confidence among the Republican leaders of a sweeping victory for the full Republican state ticket.

Chairman Henry F. Walton, Secretary W. Harry Baker and the other active spirits at the Republican state committee headquarters in Philadelphia report that there has been a remarkable change in situation in a number of counties to the advantage of the Republican candidates owing to the strenuous campaign that has been under way during the last two weeks. Districts which some time ago were classed as doubtful are now certain to be carried for John K. Tener for governor and all his colleagues on the Republican ticket.

A final note of warning has been sounded by field marshal Walton to Republican committeemen to guard against the danger of over-confidence, and Republicans are generally admonished to refrain from giving "complimentary votes" to Democratic or independent candidates in local contests and are urged to vote the full Republican ticket to insure the counting of their ballot.

National Issues Involved.

The importance of the election on account of the congressional contest is emphasized by Senator Penrose, who is anxious that Pennsylvania shall maintain her prestige as the leading Republican state of the union in the house at Washington. Pennsylvania by reason of her large delegation in the present house was enabled to protect her interests in framing the present tariff act.

Republican state leaders in commenting upon the result of a canvas of Pennsylvania made by the Philadelphia Press and published last Sunday, insist that its estimated plurality for John K. Tener, the Republican candidate for governor, is too low. The Philadelphia Press says that "impartial estimates furnished the Press from all the counties" give the Republican state ticket a plurality of 125,750.

While the leaders say they are not ready to make public their estimates by counties they admit that their reports give Mr. Tener over 150,000 plurality and some express the opinion that the final figures will be even larger.

Democrats Lining Up.

There are indications that while a very spectacular campaign is being made in the interest of Berry, the Keystone party nominee has been losing during the last week much of his Democratic support, the defection going to the regular Democratic nominee, Grim.

This situation is explained by the Democratic leaders who contend that the rank and file of the Democrats feel that "this is going to be a Democratic year" and they intend to stand by their regular party organization so as to be in line to take part in the primaries for the election of delegates to the Democratic national convention and to be in touch with the Democratic leadership in the event of a national Democratic victory.

Postmasterships and other federal offices are very attractive to the average Democratic worker and they recognize the fact that in the past such rewards went only to "the regulars."

Mr. Tener and his associates were given tremendous receptions in Philadelphia last Monday night and the most significant fact was that the meetings in formerly independent strongholds were crowded to the doors.

Authentic reports from Allegheny are to the effect that Mr. Tener will have a majority in that county anywhere from 20,000 to 30,000, and that he will poll a great vote in his home county of Washington, and in the neighboring counties as well.

In the anthracite coal regions, where Mr. Tener is very popular with the miners, it is predicted that there will be a heavy poll in favor of his candidacy. Luzerne, Lackawanna and Schuylkill counties are lining up in fine shape for the entire Republican ticket.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. EMMA DISE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

GRIM AND BERRY DEMOCRATIC ROW

Charges and Counter Charges in a Bitter Fight.

QUESTIONS OF VERACITY

Alleged Allentown Pledge. That Guffey Note and Other Issues Are Involved.

The row between the Grim Democrats and the Berry Democrats over the money that Berry got from Guffey, and over the charges bearing upon Berry's other actions while filling the role of state treasurer, grows more bitter as election day draws near.

Senator Dewalt, chairman of the Democratic state committee, which is running the Grim guberantorial campaign, was a member of the legislative commission which investigated the state capitol frauds and upon whose recommendations the various arrests were made, convictions had and the suits for the recovery of stolen money were brought.

The following is a copy of a dispatch from Allentown, printed in the Democratic Philadelphia Record:

"Senator Arthur G. Dewalt, Democratic state chairman, returned home after a strenuous week's work conferring and campaigning, which culminated last night in his speech at Reading in his pitching William H. Berry, Keystone candidate for governor, into the Ananias club. Last night's speech by Dewalt was simply the initiation. He says he did not start to reveal Berry prior to this, since he was minus the affidavits showing the alleged hypocrisy. He has more of them, and during the remainder of the campaign intends to give Berry the third degree.

"Mr. Dewalt is enthusiastic over the outlook for Grim, and says he believes the Democratic candidate will be elected governor of Pennsylvania.

"Concerning the Berry loan from Colonel Guffey, State Chairman Dewalt this afternoon made the following statement:

Got Guffey's Cash.

"The loan by Colonel Guffey to Mr. Berry was made about July 30, 1907. Mr. Berry gave his promissory note for $15,000 and at the same time gave as collateral 2700 shares of Berry Engineering company stock. When Colonel Guffey was pressed for funds he had the note discounted and of necessity turned over the collateral to the bank. The bank thus became owner of the note and of the collateral, and when payment was demanded from the maker it was obliged by law to sell the collateral at the post in the open market. That sale disclosed the fact that the collateral was worth only $700 and Colonel Guffey lost $14,500 and the discounts he had paid on the note.

"Mr. Berry has alleged that he used this money in part for expenses attending the capitol graft investigation. He never presented any bill to the commission, nor did he ever produce any receipts showing any expenditures by himself. Any legitimate expenses incurred by him would cheerfully have been paid by the commission, as it had a surplus and turned over to the state a balance of more than $10,000.

"Mr. Berry also claims that part of the money was paid to detectives or officers to insure his personal safety, presumably to prevent his assassination. In Mr. Berry's employ at that time was Mr. McCann, who, I think, was ex-chief of police of Chester, who I am sure was big enough to protect even a state treasurer.

Where It Went.

"I understand from the public press that Mr. Berry now admits that the $15,000 he borrowed from Colonel Guffey was used in his own business, to wit, the Berry Engineering company."

The Berry-Guffey loan came up in court last Saturday in Pittsburg, revealing the fact that Berry had not up to that time liquidated his indebtedness. A news dispatch from Pittsburg sent out last Saturday recited the hearing of the case in which on behalf of Berry it was argued that he did not owe the bank, but that the debt was due Guffey from whom the money was obtained.

Berry is not only busy explaining his financial dealings with Guffey, but he is being asked on every side to account for the loose methods in vogue in the state treasurer's office during his administration and to answer the charge that he was frequently absent for days from the office.

It is disclosed that during his term as state treasurer a check for $25,000 was sent by mail to the Mercantile Savings and Trust company under date of July 10, 1907, notwithstanding the fact that the company went into the hands of a receiver on April 5, 1907.

This is the astonishing record of a transaction which occurred in the middle of Berry's term when he was supposed to be looking after the financial interests of the state. The facts are upon the records of the state treasury.

In reply to newspaper criticism in Pottsville last week Berry in a speech admitted that while he was state treasurer he borrowed $16,000 from the Harrisburg Trust company, a favored state depository, but declared that he had given ample collateral.

This is the transaction which has been the subject of so much adverse comment.

Has Known Mr. Tener Long

Former Democratic Assemblyman Goes After Traducers.

"If all the statements made against Hon. J. K Tener are on a par with the one that he has been drunk, then I must say that they are on a flimsy foundation."

Thus spoke Ex-Representative Edward Callaghan to a group of listeners today. "I have spent over 20 years in the most exhaustive research as to the effect of alcohol on the human system and in my public and private discourses on that subject I have held up on many occasions John K. Tener as a model of sobriety. I have known Mr. Tener for 20 years and have been a close neighbor and met him daily long before he ever thought of running for public office, often talking to him on various subjects, and if Mr Tener is not what I have pictured him, then indeed there is no value in the information I possess. Not only that, if John K. Tener is not an honest, generous, liberal minded man, there is none in the range of my acquaintance. I say this as a Democrat whose devotion to the Jacksonian doctrine stands unchallenged before the world."

BANKER MAKES A STATEMENT

A Harrisburg dispatch says that Joseph Fromberger, the Elizabethville banker who was claimed to have been victimized in buying stock of the National Utilities Company declared recently:

"I would not sell my stock in the National Public Utilities Corporation today at par with interest. Neither Mr. Tener nor anybody else can buy it from me for what I paid for it, and I protest most vigorously against the injustice that has been done to a company with which I am connected, as well as against the injustice done me personally by the manner in which the Patriot treated its brief telephone interview with me.

"As for Mr. Tener's connection with the enterprise, it was entirely legitimate and there was nothing about it that could possibly be discreditable to any man. I may say however that I never had any dealings with Mr. Tener: that his name was never mentioned to me.

"I used to be be a Democrat, but I want to say right here that I am for John K. Tener for Governor. I know he is honest, which is more than I can say for some of the industrial anarchists who are attacking him."

Three Curious Bells.

There is a curious legend connected with the bells of Messingham church. It is said that a long, long time ago a traveler was passing through Messingham when he noticed three men sitting on a stile in the churchyard and saying, "Come to church, Thompson; come to church, Brown," and so on. Being very much surprised, he asked what it meant and was told that, having no bells, they called folks to church in this way. The traveler remarked that it was a pity so fine a church should be without bells and at the same time asked the men if they could make three for the church, promising to pay for them himself. They undertook to do this. They were respectively a tinker, a carpenter and a shoemaker. When next the traveler passed that way he found the three men ringing three bells which said, "Ting, tong, pluff," being made respectively of tin wood and leather.—London Tit-Bits.

REPUBLICANISM LAUDED

Speakers Say Only Consistent Thing to Do is to Vote the Ticket.

At a well attended meeting of Afro Americans of the Monongahela Valley, held last evening in the Bank of Charleroi hall, John K. Tener as the head of the ticket and all of the other candidates of the Republican party, were tendered a hearty and unanimous endorsement. The name Tener mentioned on several occasions by the speakers created wild applause, and could the candidate have been present he would have been touched by the whole-souled loyalty and friendship displayed for him and his cause

The meeting was opened by Addison Ebbits of Charleroi, and Howard Thomas was chosen chairman and Harry Rideout secretary. The first speaker was Capt. William Catlin of Monongahela, who made a stirring address, espousing the Republican ticket and J. K. Tener as the proper man for standard bearer. He was especially bitter against what he termed the upstart Keystone party.

Capt. Catlin was followed by J. H. Rhodes of Charleroi who made interesting comparisons showing the members of his race that it was the Republican party and no other that had brought the negro out of slavery. He also spoke of the hopelessness of the colored man of bettering his condition by voting other than the Republican ticket

Wilford Holmes, an attorney from Pittsburg, made one of the principal addresses. He reviewed the records of the various parties and said all had enough faults, but the Republican party had within it the last wrongs of any of them, and was the only party which the negro could consistently support, because of what it had done for the race, and said it was only through its administration that the negro could better his conditions in the State. The Democratic party and the Keystone party were really opponents of the cause of freedom, he said, and to vote either was to partly vote away his rights. "If the Republican party has faults, raise the devil in the party," he shouted, "and don't think that by jumping the traces to another upstart ticket, you can better yours-lves By and by you will want something from the Republican party, which is bound to win. and you won't stand the least show at all of getting it."

Jesse K. Johnston, who was present, was called upon for an address and spoke of the strict integrity of the candidates and of the necessity to vote the straight ticket

A committee was appointed early in the meeting on resolutions, consisting of Hiram Smith, Lockwood Hughes, Rev Daniel Ferguson, J.

LOCK 4 LEADS IN BUSINESS

Coal Shipments Surpass Those Through Lower Pool During October.

A report of Lock No. 2 for the month of October shows that the shipments of coal were not up to those of Lock No. 4 The coal locked through No. 2 during the month totaled 13,255,000 bushels, just 1,283,000 bushels less than through Lock No. 4 which had a shipment of 14,528,000 bushels of coal. The low water hampers navigation in the lower pools the same as it does in the upper pools.

BUSINESS MEN STAND BY HOME CANDIDATE

Charleroi People Who Have Associated With J. K. Tener Believe Him Thoroughly Honest and Upright.

Bearing the signatures of 125 local business and professional men, firms and pastors of churches, the following testimonial from Congressman John K. Tener's home town was published today in the Pittsburg Gazette Times. The petition was circulated by some of Mr. Tener's friends among the business people of Charleroi in view of certain reports that Mr. Tener did not stand well in his home town. The practically unanimous endorsement by the business people of the town must effectually refutes this charge. The testimonial subscribed to is as follows:

"The undersigned business and professional men of Charleroi take this method of expressing our regard for John K. Tener, the Republican party nominee for Governor of Pennsylvana

"We are his neighors and friends We have been engaged in our various vocation in the same community with him for years. All of us have been more or less personally associated with him both in private and commercial affairs and in enterprises and movements of a public nature. We know him intimately. We know him to be rigidly honest in all his relations—a man of the best motives. For 19 years, ever since the foundation of this town, he has lived among us and has been highly honored by us for his unselfish citizenship, his manly attitude toward his neighbor, his substantial success in whatever project or problem he undertakes, and his devotion to the public interest in this section.

"Such being the estimate of the character and qualities of Mr. Tener, we beg in this manner, voluntarily, and as a well deserved tribute to Mr. Tener, to commend him to the people of Pennsylvania for their suffrage on election day.

"With complete and unshaken confidence in him, we urge him as a thoroughly capable successor to that splendid type of Pennsylvania Republicanism, Gov. Edwin S Stuart, whose approved policies he is pledged to continue."

The bride is an accomplished pianist and for two years or more has been the pianist at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. The groom has been in business in Charleroi for several years and is known as a hustling and prosperous young business man. The wedding came as somewhat of a surprise to the numerous friends of the couple who, nevertheless, tender their best wishes.

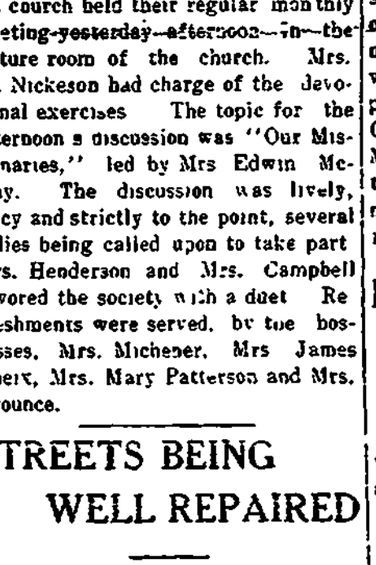
STREETS BEING WELL REPAIRED

Street Commissioner Jacob Hormell is getting well under way the work of improvement of the paved streets over the town, where parts had been sunken by cave-ins over sewers. On Ninth street and Crest avenue, in making more general repairs, it was necessary to change the curb.

MARK THIS, MR. VOTER!

From the Pittsburg Gazette Times.

WHAT kind of a Republican are you? A TAFT man? Well, President TAFT is in favor of the election of Republican candidates for Governor, for the Legislature and for Congress. Are you a ROOSEVELT man? Well, Col. ROOSEVELT has issued appeal after appeal to Republicans east and west urging the importance of standing faithfully by the nominees of their party's conventions and primaries. Are you an insurgent Republican? Well, Senator CUMMINS of Iowa says: "I would rather suffer the inequalities of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill for a thousand years than suffer the disaster of the application of the Democratic theory of the tariff for a single month." Are you a KNOX man? Well, Secretary



J. K. TENER

KNOX'S Columbus speech of Wednesday night was a call upon Republicans of every shade of opinion to stick to their party's flag Are you a STUART man? Well, Gov. STUART has his coat off and is fighting for the whole Republican ticket. In short, the big men of the Republican party in various States, regardless of differences existing earlier in the year, and without respect to their personal preferences, are battling for Republican candidates and opposing fake "independent" movements. Certainly Pennsylvania Republicans in the ranks will make no mistake if they, too, prove their loyalty by voting for JOHN K. TENER and his ticket colleagues, State and district.

YOUNG WOMAN VICTIM OF RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Blanche Phillips Killed by Train at North Charleroi.

DEATH OCCURRED LATER

Was Able to Rise From Ground After Being Struck But Could not Walk

In some unknown manner, while returning from a trip to Charleroi last night at about 11 o'clock, Miss Blanche Phillips, 19 years old, was killed by a southbound train at the railroad crossing at North Charleroi. Life was not crushed out immediately, but the girl lived for some time after the accident, her body being found by the railroad tracks by a crew of a northbound train.

Miss Phillips had been living with the family of A. F. McGowan during the past several months. She visited friends in Charleroi last night and with her sister, Grace Phillips, and a friend, Miss Elsie Claybaugh, started home about 10.00 o'clock. She left the other two girls at the bridge, and started to the McGowan house. In what manner she was struck at the crossing is a mystery.

Mr. McGowan returned home on the 11 o'clock car from Charleroi, and as he passed the crossing noticed the girl standing weakly against a post near the station, but did not take much notice of her and passed on to his home. Later he was told that Miss Phillips had been killed. When picked up the girl was not dead and tried to speak but it was too late. Dr. J. K. Smith was called in attendance.

It is supposed that Miss Phillips had been hit by the train before Mr. McGowan had come home, but had thought she was not so badly hurt and was able to arise to her feet, expecting to go on in a moment. Internal injuries are supposed to have caused her death.

Miss Phillips was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips of near New Salem, Fayette county. Two sisters lived here, the one, Grace, who was with her last night, and Mrs. Nora Foulks live in Charleroi, and at home there are four sisters and two brothers. She was a relative of Burgess George W. Risbeck. She was a member of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian congregation and a faithful attendant at the services of that church. The father and one brother came this morning to claim the body and to arrange for the funeral, which will probably be held on Sunday. Coroner Heffran will investigate the death.

APPEAL ALLOWED BRIDGE OWNERS

Claim $50,000 is Not Enough for Structure at Belle Vernon.

The Belle Vernon Bridge company, [illegible] Bridge of Pittsburg, capital, has been allowed an appeal to the price awarded by the viewers for the purchase of the river bridge at Belle Vernon. The appeal was asked some time ago, the company claiming that $50,000, the amount set through condemnation proceedings, was not enough. The bridge was taken over by Washington and Fayette counties and made free.

Colored Men Deny Report That Tener is No Friend.

PEOPLE KNOW TRUTH

Tener, candidate for Governor, had said that one of the drawbacks of his campaign was having to shake hands with the colored men over the State was this morning nailed, as has been many similar things within the past few days The report has been emphatically denied Charleroi colored people who know Mr. Tener and who recognize him as their friend laugh at the assertion mace purely with an attempt to injure.

By Way of Contrast

Those good people who are opposing Congressman John K. Tener and the balance of the Republican ticket because of the alleged domination of the party by Senator Penrose, should carefully investigate the character and standing of the leaders and promoters of the Keystone party, the organization that poses as the party of reform, and which if successful at the polls will control the State administration. While the party has many sincere adherents and followers who take no other interest in politics except to cast their ballots on election day, it should be known that three of the most prominent backers of the Keystone movement are E. A. Van Valkenberg, editor of the Philadelphia North American, former Senator William Flinn of Pittsburg, and former Congressman E. F. Acheson of Washington. Each is a discredited and ousted boss in his own locality—that is Flinn and Acheson are, while Van Valkenberg in his checkered and disreputable career, has thus far been frustrated in his attempts at Statewide political control.

What has the Keystone party got to offer from the hands of Van Valkenburg, Flinn and Acheson? Taking the record and career of each, is there any reason to hope for a better condition of affairs with these men in control of the State administration, and virtual dictators of public policies and expenditures? In the interests of morality and civic righteousness, is there any reason to expect a better condition of affairs under the domination of Van Valkenberg, Flinn and Acheson than under Senator Penrose, if the present State administration may be said to be under his control? Contrast Governor Stuart's administration with "Bill" Flinn's control of municipal affairs in Pittsburg; with Acheson's control of political and fiscal affairs in Washington county, when he traded on liquor licenses as political assets, intrenched and extended the liquor traffic, and plunged the county into debt by his patchwork "good roads" folly, his extravagance of administration, and his discriminations in tax assessments which he used as a club through the county commissioners' office on corporations for political support; with Van Valkenberg's shady career, who, as a Quay worker, switched to Wanamaker, and who in his efforts to elect the latter United States Senator was arrested, charged with bribery and settled the case that haled him before court. These are the men who seek to dominate and who will dominate the administration and control State patronage if he is elected.

This is what the Keystone party has to offer the people of Pennsylvania in exchange for the present well ordered administration. The Republican party has within its organization the power to regulate and control affairs at the polls, and its past record of progress and achievement is more than sufficient argument why its followers should continue their support.

Acheson Said

In his Washington Reporter of November 6, 1910, when the Democratic-Citizens fusion threatened Republican supremacy in Washington county, E. F. Acheson said:

"The enemies of the Republican party have made abuse and slander their principal campaign weapons and their documents of misrepresentation have been their leading assets. The people of the county, however, are today calmly considering the situation after the campaign has closed. They are considering the record of the Republican party for thirty years; they are convinced that the court house is not a den of thieves as it has been styled. They know that the charges against certain county officials are groundless, that they have been made anonymously and otherwise for political effect. And they know that the ticket bearing the name 'Republican' is a clean ticket—a ticket which guarantees to the people a competent, an honest and an economical administration of their affairs. And this is what the people want. And they will get it, for the whole Republican ticket will be elected by a splendid majority."

Now Acheson has made an alliance with the Democrats and Keystone party to turn over to them the State and national control. In 1905 only the county offices were at stake. Now the national policy of protection is threatened. Mr. Acheson's warning is more applicable today than when he made it five years ago when his control over county offices was threatened.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

"Salome" as a name for a naughty dance will soon pass into history. It's getting too old.

Some people say they are not going to pay for milk at the rate of 10 cents per quart. It looks as though they wouldn't indulge in that luxury.

They have electric toasters, electric stoves, electric washers electric irons, but people are not yet far enough advanced to have electric women to do their electric ironing.

Walter Wellman was not troubled with having to make another trip to prove his story like Doc Cook.

Mr. Carnegie wants Col Roosevelt appointed chairman of the committee to promote permanent peace. Heavens! What does he expect of a man who was the originator of the phrase "beaten to a frazzle."

John J. Murphy of Philadelphia complains because J. K. Tener is six feet four and weighs 230 pounds. He is probably sore because fate saw fit to relinquish its work on him before it had made more than a half sized man of him.

The Observer hasn't given the Mail any free advertising for at least two days. We feel much hurt about such neglect.

B. Frank Smith of Fayette county is frankly of the opinion that he is not insane, and was not insane two weeks before he killed the two fellows for which act he is now in jail. The form of insanity which occurs only at intervals and is never recognized except at court trials is a particularly dangerous kind.

Doc Cook has the habit of dropping into the gilded lights now and then but it comes from his dramatic nature, and he is not responsible.

AFRO-AMERICAN CITIZENS HEARTILY ENDORSE TENER

T. Davis, J. G. Young, of Charleroi, S. T. Thornton, R. Kemper, Monongahela, Julius Smith, Monessen, and G. L. Gray, Donora. The following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted.

"Resolved, That we denounce the methods of G. Grant Williams of 726 South Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and others in sending inflammatory circulars and letters to colored secret societies and charitable organizations, as unwise and tending to promote race controversies.

"We protest against bringing our beloved lodges and societies into politics for any party.

"We also protest against any attempts to poison the minds of voters against the grand old Republican party for the reason that this party, from the days of the Civil War, has been recognized as our friend and protector.

"We deny the allegations contained in the circulars of G. Grant Williams to the effect that John K. Tener, our fellow citizen and neighbor, is against the colored race. Mr. Tener has lived among us for twenty years, and we personally know him to be at all times honest, honorable and charitable toward his fellow men without regard to race or color.

"We call upon Afro-Americans throughout the entire State to join with us in supporting Mr. Tener and the entire Republican State ticket."

In 1906 A. H. Anderson was nominated by the Republicans of Washington County for State Senator. Greene County also presented a candidate in the person of Hon. Daniel S. Walton. Under the conferee system then in vogue, each candidate was entitled to an equal number of conferees. The rules of the State Committee provided that in case of a disagreement, the State Chairman should appoint an umpire, whose vote should decide.

Col. W. R. Andrews, then State Chairman, appointed W. S. Parker, who decided in favor of Mr. Walton. How well Mr. Anderson supported the ticket after being turned down is best told by the following letter from A. M. Templeton, then Chairman for Washington County:—

Col. W. R. Andrews,
1417 Locust Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir;—

You will remember that Mr. Anderson was a candidate for State Senate from the Washington-Greene district, and that I had a talk with you one day late last summer, at Atlantic City, regarding same. You saw fit to arrange matters so that Mr. Anderson would not receive the nomination, and the result was fully as bad as I told you it would be. Mr. Anderson developed great strength at the primary, and his friends were exceedingly indignant over his defeat and the manner of it. Had he stopped right there, as many would under the circumstances, it would have been a very serious matter for the whole Republican ticket in this county. Mr. Anderson, however, was not that kind of a Republican. He placed himself at the disposition of the County Committee and did everything in his power to undo the harm that had been done, and worked faithfully throughout the campaign. The indignation of his friends, however, was so great that, notwithstanding all he could do, our majority was several hundred less than it would have been had he been on the ticket, but he saved us many hundreds that we would have lost had it not been for his faithful work.

Yours very truly,
A. M. TEMPLETON,
Chairman.

VICTORY CERTAIN ON TUESDAY NEXT

Pennsylvania Republicans Prepare For Rousing Majority.

WALTON'S CALL TO ACTION

State Chairman Urges All to Go to the Polls to Insure a Magnificent Triumph.

In the closing days of the campaign there is the greatest confidence among the Republican leaders of a sweeping victory for the full Republican state ticket.

Chairman Henry F. Walton, Secretary W. Harry Baker and the other active spirits at the Republican state committee headquarters in Philadelphia report that there has been a remarkable change in situation in a number of counties to the advantage of the Republican candidates owing to the strenuous campaign that has been under way during the last two weeks. Districts which some time ago were classed as doubtful are now certain to be carried for John K. Tener for governor and all his colleagues on the Republican ticket.

A final note of warning has been sounded by field marshal Walton to Republican committeemen to guard against the danger of over-confidence, and Republicans are generally admonished to refrain from giving "complimentary votes" to Democratic or independent candidates in local contests and are urged to vote the full Republican ticket to insure the counting of their ballot.

National Issues Involved.

The importance of the election on account of the congressional contest is emphasized by Senator Penrose, who is anxious that Pennsylvania shall maintain her prestige as the leading Republican state of the union in the house at Washington. Pennsylvania by reason of her large delegation in the present house was enabled to protect her interests in framing the present tariff act.

Republican state leaders in commenting upon the result of a canvas of Pennsylvania made by the Philadelphia Press and published last Sunday, insist that its estimated plurality for John K. Tener, the Republican candidate for governor, is too low. The Philadelphia Press says that "impartial estimates furnished the Press from all the counties" give the Republican state ticket a plurality of 125,750.

While the leaders say they are not ready to make public their estimates by counties they admit that their reports give Mr. Tener over 150,000 plurality and some express the opinion that the final figures will be even larger.

Democrats Lining Up.

There are indications that while a very spectacular campaign is being made in the interest of Berry, the Keystone party nominee has been losing during the last week much of his Democratic support, the defection going to the regular Democratic nominee, Grim.

This situation is explained by the Democratic leaders who contend that the rank and file of the Democrats feel that "this is going to be a Democratic year" and they intend to stand by their regular party organization so as to be in line to take part in the primaries for the election of delegates to the Democratic national convention and to be in touch with the Democratic leadership in the event of a national Democratic victory.

Postmasterships and other federal offices are very attractive to the average Democratic worker and they recognize the fact that in the past such rewards went only to "the regulars."

Mr. Tener and his associates were given tremendous receptions in Philadelphia last Monday night and the most significant fact was that the meetings in formerly independent strongholds were crowded to the doors.

Authentic reports from Allegheny are to the effect that Mr. Tener will have a majority in that county anywhere from 20,000 to 30,000, and that he will poll a great vote in his home county of Washington, and in the neighboring counties as well.

In the anthracite coal regions, where Mr. Tener is very popular with the miners, it is predicted that there will be a heavy poll in favor of his candidacy. Luzerne, Lackawanna and Schuylkill counties are lining up in fine shape for the entire Republican ticket.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. EMMA LUSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

GRIM AND BERRY DEMOCRATIC ROW

Charges and Counter Charges in a Bitter Fight.

QUESTIONS OF VERACITY

Alleged Allentown Pledge, That Guffey Note and Other Issues Are Involved.

The row between the Grim Democrats and the Berry Democrats over the money that Berry got from Guffey, and over the charges bearing upon Berry's other actions while filling the role of state treasurer, grows more bitter as election day draws near.

Senator Dewalt, chairman of the Democratic state committee, which is running the Grim gubernatorial campaign, was a member of the legislative commission which investigated the state capitol frauds and upon whose recommendations the various arrests [illegible] and the suits for the recovery of stolen money were brought.

The following is a copy of a dispatch from Allentown, printed in the Democratic Philadelphia Record:

"Senator Arthur G. Dewalt, Democratic state chairman, returned home after a strenuous week's work conferring and campaigning, which culminated last night in his speech at Reading in his pitching William H. Berry, Keystone candidate for governor, into the Ananias club. Last night's speech by Dewalt was simply the initiation. He says he did not start to reveal Berry prior to this, since he was minus the affidavits showing the alleged hypocrisy. He has more of them, and during the remainder of the campaign intends to give Berry the third degree.

"Mr. Dewalt is enthusiastic over the outlook for Grim, and says he believes the Democratic candidate will be elected governor of Pennsylvania.

"Concerning the Berry loan from Colonel Guffey, State Chairman Dewalt this afternoon made the following statement:

Got Guffey's Cash.

"The loan by Colonel Guffey to Mr. Berry was made about July 30, 1907. Mr. Berry gave his promissory note for $15,000 and at the same time gave as collateral 2700 shares of Berry Engineering company stock. When Colonel Guffey was pressed for funds he had the note discounted and of necessity turned over the collateral to the bank. The bank thus became owner of the note and of the collateral, and when payment was demanded from the maker it was obliged by law to sell the collateral at the post in the open market. That sale disclosed the fact that the collateral was worth only $700 and Colonel Guffey lost $14,500 and the discounts he had paid on the note.

"Mr. Berry has alleged that he used this money in part for expenses attending the capitol graft investigation. He never presented any bill to the commission, nor did he ever produce any receipts showing any expenditures by himself. Any legitimate expenses incurred by him would cheerfully have been paid by the commission, as it had a surplus and turned over to the state a balance of more than $10,000.

"Mr. Berry also claims that part of the money was paid to detectives or officers to insure his personal safety, presumably to prevent his assassination. In Mr. Berry's employ at that time was Mr. McCann, who, I think, was ex-chief of police of Chester, who I am sure was big enough to protect even a state treasurer.

Where It Went.

"I understand from the public press that Mr. Berry now admits that the $15,000 he borrowed from Colonel Guffey was used in his own business, to wit, the Berry Engineering company."

The Berry-Guffey loan came up in court last Saturday in Pittsburg, revealing the fact that Berry had not up to that time liquidated his indebtedness. A news dispatch from Pittsburg sent out last Saturday recited the hearing of the case in which on behalf of Berry it was argued that he did not owe the bank, but that the debt was due Guffey from whom the money was obtained.

Berry is not only busy explaining his financial dealings with Guffey, but he is being asked on every side to account for the loose methods in vogue in the state treasurer's office during his administration and to answer the charge that he was frequently absent for days from the office.

It is disclosed that during his term as state treasurer a check for $25,000 was sent by mail to the Mercantile Savings and Trust company under date of July 19, 1907, notwithstanding the fact that the company went into the hands of a receiver on April 5, 1907.

This is the astonishing record of a transaction which occurred in the middle of Berry's term when he was supposed to be looking after the financial interests of the state. The facts are upon the records of the state treasury.

In reply to newspaper criticism in Pottsville last week Berry in a speech admitted that while he was state treasurer he borrowed $16,000 from the Harrisburg Trust company, a favored state depository, but declared that he had given ample collateral.

This is the transaction which has been the subject of so much adverse comment.

Has Known Mr. Tener Long

Former Democratic Assemblyman Goes After Traducers.

"If all the statements made against Hon. J. K Tener are on a par with the one that he has been drunk, then I must say that they are on a flimsy foundation."

Thus spoke Ex-Representative Edward Callaghan to a group of listeners today. "I have spent over 20 years in the most exhaustive research as to the effect of alcohol on the human system and in my public and private discourses on that subject I have held up on many occasions John K. Tener as a model of sobriety. I have known Mr. Tener for 20 years and have been a close neighbor and met him daily long before he ever thought of running for public office, often talking to him on various subjects, and if Mr Tener is not what I have pictured him, then indeed there is no value in the information I possess. Not only that, if John K. Tener is not an honest, generous, liberal minded man, there is none in the range of my acquaintance. I say this as a Democrat whose devotion to the Jacksonian doctrine stands unchallenged before the world."

BANKER MAKES A STATEMENT

A Harrisburg dispatch says that Joseph Fromberger, the Elizabethville banker who was claimed to have been victimized in buying stock of the National Utilities Company declared recently.

"I would not sell my stock in the National Public Utilities Corporation today at par with interest. Neither Mr. Tener nor anybody else can buy it from me for what I paid for it, and I protest most vigorously against the injustice that has been done to a company with which I am connected, as well as against the injustice done me personally by the manner in which the Patriot treated its brief telephone interview with me

"As for Mr. Tener's connection with the enterprise, it was entirely legitimate and there was nothing about it that could possibly be discreditable to any man. I may say however that I never had any dealings with Mr. Tener, that his name was never mentioned to me

"I used to be be a Democrat, but I want to say right here that I am for John K. Tener for Governor. I know he is honest, which is more than I can say for some of the industrial anarchists who are attacking him."

Three Curious Bells.

There is a curious legend connected with the bells of Messingham church. It is said that a long, long time ago a traveler was passing through Messingham when he noticed three men sitting on a stile in the churchyard and saying, "Come to church Thompson; come to church Brown" and so on. Being very much surprised he asked what it meant and was told that, having no bells they called folks to church in this way. The traveler remarked that it was a shame a fine church should be without bells and at the same time asked the men if they could make three for the church promising to pay for them himself. They undertook to do this. They were respectively a tinker, a carpenter and a shoemaker. When next the traveler passed that way he found the three men ringing three bells which said "Ting, tong pluff," being made respectively of tin wood and leather. London Tit Bits.
